

Congregation Beth Shalom
Classroom Philosophy and Expectations Agreement
2018-2019

Philosophy:

Each individual should have the following rights:

1. The right to learn without interference from other people in the school or class.
2. The right to work together as a students and teachers in an atmosphere of mutual respect and understanding.
3. The right to have one's personal property respected by others.
4. The right to be protected from physical harm.

Expectations of Behavior

1. Students will be ready to participate in class activities.
2. Students will not disrupt any other student's participation in class.
3. Students will keep their hands to themselves.
4. Language that is considered offensive will not be used.
5. Property of Congregation Beth Shalom, the facility, or any other facility we use will not be abused.
6. When in the sanctuary, students will behave in accordance to the spirituality of our sanctuary at all times.
7. Students will clean up their work area prior to leaving.
8. No student will be dismissed early to wait outside for a parent; the parent will come into the classroom to pick them up. (This is for their safety)
9. The following are also prohibited: defiance, stealing, vandalism, dishonesty, profanity and vulgarity, fighting, drugs, alcohol and tobacco.

Discipline Procedure:

1. Teachers will provide a student with a verbal warning for disruptive behavior. If the behavior continues the student will be moved to just right outside of their classroom to give them the opportunity to recompose their self.
2. If it is necessary for a student to be removed from the class for behavior the parent will be notified.
3. If disruptive behavior continues, the parent or parents will conference with the religious school director, the teacher and the student to discuss further actions which may include any or all of the following:
 - Parents on the premises during school hours
 - Suspension from school for a period of time
 - Any mutually agreed upon arrangements made at the conference

I have read and discussed these expectations with my children.
